Welcome!

We're so glad you're here and invite you to journey in faith with us. We believe the church is the sacrament of God's saving presence in the world. Our goal is to provide a spiritual home where all are welcome, where the healing, reconciling, liberating love of God flows through us to all people. If you have any questions about our parish, please call or email our parish office.

From

Timothy Johnston

On Tuesday, May 21, I had the privilege of being at Saint Xavier University (SXU) to offer a day of reflection for parish ministers on the topic of Eucharist. As you may recall, the US Bishops have called for a Eucharistic Revival and we are currently in year two of three, which is focused on parishes renewing a deep love for the Eucharist. Thus far, here, we have only offered a Bible Study that examined the Eucharist in Scripture. I hope that late in summer and/or fall we can offer some additional adult formation opportunities to explore our Eucharistic living. Below is one of the prayers the group at SXU broke open to help us understand how the Eucharistic liturgy forms the assembly in the theology of eucharist (lex orandi, lex credendi) and teaches us that we are called to live (lex vivendi) and serve for the life of the world. I invite you to consider this week, how you are transformed by sharing in the Eucharist, how it challenges you to serve your neighbors, and how it reveals God's love in your life.

[Jesus] has always showed compassion / for children and for the poor, / for the sick and for the sinners, / and he became a neighbor / to the oppressed and the afflicted. / By word and deed he announced to the world / that you are our Father / and that you care for all your sons and daughters.

THE EUCHARIST AND SOCIAL MISSION

Body of Christ, Broken for the World
Zoom Webinar

Thursday, May 30 - 3 p.m. ET

Join us on May 30, 2024, at 3:00 p.m. (ET) / 2:00 p.m. (CT) to reflect on The Eucharist and Social Mission: Body of Christ, Broken for the World as the Church prepares to celebrate the Solemnity of The Most Holy Body and Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ. Together, we will break open the theology of the Eucharist and consider how our liturgical practice calls us to be missionary disciples, going forth from the Eucharistic meal to accompany those who are poor and vulnerable.

This webinar will also provide practical examples, resources, and tools to help our Eucharistic communities live the call to transform all that degrades human life and dignity and create systemic change.

This virtual event is co-sponsored by the Department of Justice, Peace and Human Development of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, Catholic Charities USA, Catholic Relief Services, and the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

SPIRITUALITY OF THE MINISTRY OF THE ASSEMBLY

excerpt from Living a Liturgical Spirituality: Journeying Daily with Christ

by Joyce Ann Zimmerman, CPPS (LTP, 2020)

THE BEING AND DOING OF THE MINISTRY OF THE ASSEMBLY

We do far more when we come together for liturgy than simply get together for a common action. The being of the liturgical assembly is to be Church made visible. The ordained priest is in our midst as the Head of the Body, the visible Presence of Christ. When we gather as one, Head and Body, we are Church. The doing of the assembly is to surrender ourselves as individual members of the Body of Christ to being the one Body of Christ that is larger than ourselves as individuals. All our full, conscious, active participation in liturgy is directed to becoming more perfectly the Body of Christ.

THE ROLE OF THE ASSEMBLY

The liturgical assembly manifests the Church, the Body of Christ, in its fullness. Every person who gathers for liturgy is a minister to self and others. As liturgical assembly, the gathered people—ordained priests and people, Head and Body—enact the paschal mystery and continue Christ’s ongoing work of salvation. When we gather as liturgical assembly, we call to mind and live out our identity and mission. We renew our baptismal commitment to be disciples of the risen Christ, connect with liturgical spirituality in the very shape of the liturgy, and are sent forth to be the Presence of Christ to all those we meet.

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE SPIRITUALITY OF THE MINISTRY OF THE ASSEMBLY

- Communal. Communion with other members of the Body of Christ reveals the many gifts given to the community to continue Jesus’ saving ministry. No one of us has all the necessary qualities and talents to continue Jesus’ saving mission. Together, we have all we need when we surrender ourselves to continue Jesus’ mission. The spirituality of the ministry of the assembly calls us in our daily living to overcome divisions and promote unity.
- Universal. One of the four marks of the Church is that it is catholic, that is, universal. The liturgical assembly is not just a collection of individuals gathered at a certain time and place. The liturgical assembly is far-reaching: It encompasses the whole Church, past, present, and future. It is the visible presence of the communion of saints offering God praise and thanks. As such, each member of the liturgical assembly is a model of welcome for anyone who comes and for anyone who is met in the daily circumstances of life.
- Other-centered. Selfishness has no place in members of the liturgical assembly. Like Christ our Head, the members of the assembly strive to be all things to all people. No one is excluded, everyone has the dignity of the Children of God, others’ needs are our own needs. The surrender proper to becoming a liturgical assembly mirrors the kind of surrender to the care of others that is part and parcel of our daily Christian living.

- Open to surrendering. Our natural tendency is to be concerned about ourselves. This is appropriate and necessary for us to have what we need to live a good life. We tend to keep what is ours. Contrary to this, the ministry of the assembly requires us to let go of ourselves—to surrender our thoughts and desires, preferences and habits, likes and dislikes to become more than we are as individuals. Without our being open to surrendering to the liturgical action, we block God’s desire to transform us into more perfect images of the divine Presence.
- All focus on common identity united under one Head. Variety in our liturgical assembly is indicative of no one being excluded from God’s Beloved people. What draws this variety into a seamless whole is a concerted focus on Christ, who is Head of the Body and who unites us as one. We assemble in response to Christ’s call; it is Christ who is the reason for our being and doing, and the cause of our becoming a community united in one purpose.
- Accepting of diversity. A variety of gifts and people make up the liturgical assembly. To celebrate liturgy well we must recognize each one’s place and role in the immense diversity that characterizes our liturgical assembly. Everyone has something to contribute, and the differences simply help us grasp the creativity of God in the variety of people gathered.
- Real commitment to celebrating “good” liturgy. It is very easy to get lost in our personal likes and dislikes about how liturgy ought to unfold. We must be willing to be formed in what good liturgy is and why the Church is so particular about how liturgy is celebrated. Liturgy is not our personal prayer, although there are times during liturgical rites that allow us personal prayer. Liturgy is a communal prayer of the whole Church and, as such, every liturgical assembly must be willing to know, understand, and be formed in the liturgy as it is most fruitfully celebrated.
- Balances liturgical and devotional prayer. Liturgical prayer cannot be the only prayer of the members of the assembly. If we never raise our minds and hearts to God during daily living, then nothing magic will happen at the liturgy in encountering God. Our own daily, personal prayer is a kind of “practice” in opening ourselves to God’s Presence, encountering God in divine goodness, and listening for the direction God wishes us to take in our daily living.

Faith FORMATION

What ever happened to CCD?

The Confraternity of Christian Doctrine (CCD) was an ecclesiastical committee and office within the United States Bishop’s Conference from 1935-1969 tasked with overseeing the handing on of the faith.

Following the Second Vatican Council and the restoration of the baptismal catechumenate as the model of initiating adults into the Catholic Church, the Church in the United States began examining methods for apprenticing children and adults in the way of Christian living. Since as early as the final decades of the twentieth century, models of family- and whole-parish based formation have been developed.

The Directory for Catechesis, issued by the Vatican in 2020, notes that “the catechumenate ... has an explicit missionary intention and is structured as an organic and cumulative whole for initiation into Christian faith and life. Precisely because of [this], ... one speaks of a catechesis inspired by the catechumenal model” (DC, 61).

The catechumenal model consists of a multi-faceted approach in which individuals are accompanied on their journey of faith, provided with a suitable catechesis accommodated to the liturgical year, are helped by the example and support of the Christian community, participate in liturgical rites, and work actively to spread the Gospel (see RCIA 75).

Here at St. Thomas the Apostle, our Family Faith Formation process is rooted in this vision provided by the Church. Families accompany one another in their journey of faith by coming together once a month to encounter God and the teachings of the Church through activities, stories, discussion, and fellowship. They receive materials to continue their conversations and formation at home throughout the month.

Family Faith Formation is not immediate preparation for the sacraments of reconciliation, eucharist, or confirmation. Rather, it is a process of ongoing faith formation designed for all families and individuals of the parish. Family Faith Formation is rooted in the Catechism of the Catholic Church; our liturgical documents and ritual texts; full, conscious, and active participation in the Mass; the Christian way of life; and the call to baptismal living and apostolic witness.

The preschool process is tailored for families with children from preK3-K and meets for 45-minutes, while our K-8 process gathers for 3-hours on Sunday afternoon and includes a meal and time for fellowship. There are also opportunities for those who are in high school, college, graduate school, or adults without children to participate.

Registration is open for when Family Faith Formation resumes in August and an early-bird registration discount is available until June 30. To learn more or receive registration materials, contact Rosina Hendrickson at rhendrickson@stapostleparish.org.

STEWARDSHIP NOTE for The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

“Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them and they all drank from it.”
- Mark 14:23

Jesus, the perfect steward, gave thanks, just before He gave Himself up for us, completely for our salvation. He offers us the same chance to drink from His cup. In the bread and wine, we meet Christ personally. If we follow Him, drinking from His cup means we offer our own self-sacrifice, using all of our gifts for the benefit of others and to do His work on earth.
